

ABOUT US

Blazek & Vetterling is a Houston-based, audit and tax firm specializing in tax-exempt organizations, government entities and employee benefit plans.

While our roots are firmly planted in Houston, we provide services for a wide variety of more than 500 audit and tax clients throughout Texas and the nation.

Founded in 1991, Blazek & Vetterling was created to bring together a unique team of experts who understand the specific accounting needs of tax-exempt organizations. For more than 25 years, we have provided more focused nonprofit experience to our clients than any other firm in the Houston area.

Our industry-related expertise includes:

- Private Foundations
- Government Entities
- Schools and Educational Institutions
- Health-Related Organizations
- Employee Benefit Plans
- Religious Organizations
- Social Service Agencies
- Museums and Performing Arts Organizations
- Environmental and Nature Organizations

Blazek & Vetterling is licensed to practice in the states of Texas, California, Connecticut, Arkansas and New Mexico. The firm adheres to the rules of the AICPA, the Texas State Board of Public Accountancy, the Texas Society of CPAs, the Department of Labor and the U.S. General Accounting Office's Government Auditing Standards. We are members of the Not-for-Profit Section, Tax Section and Private Companies Practice Section of the AICPA, as well as the AICPA Government Audit Quality Center and AICPA Employee Benefit Plan Audit Quality Center. Our firm is certified by the City of Houston as a Women Business Enterprise (WBE) and by the state of Texas as a Historically Underutilized Business (HUB).

The Blazek & Vetterling Difference

We know your organization makes a difference in the community. Our full-time focus is on serving clients that serve others.

We speak your language. We understand your organization is subject to a unique set of accounting and assurance standards, reporting requirements and tax laws that require specific experience, technical expertise and the latest knowledge of industry related changes affecting the nonprofit sector. Our CPA team is dedicated to helping you meet these requirements and maintaining financial compliance in a timely manner.
